Article 4

Within its competences, the Commission shall cooperate with domestic, foreign and international bodies and organizations, in accordance with law.

Article 5

Commission may organize professional conferences and other forms of expert work on the issues within the scope of its competence.

II COMPOSITION AND ORGANISATION OF THE COMMISSION

Commission

Article 6

Commission shall operate and make decisions at a sitting in its permanent and extended composition.

Commission in its permanent composition shall comprise: Chairperson of the Commission, 16 members of the Commission and their substitutes.

Member of the Commission shall also be a representative of the Statistical Office of the Republic of Serbia who shall participate in the Commission's work without the right of decision-making.

Commission in its extended composition shall comprise the permanent Commission composition together with one representative of all submitters of the electoral MP candidate lists, i.e. proposer of the candidates for president of the Republic, and each of them shall have a substitute.

Commission shall work and decide in the extended composition as of the day of appointment of the members of the Commission's extended composition, until the moment the Commission determines and proclaims the election results.

Substitutes of the Commission members shall be entitled to the same rights and obligations as the members they substitute.

Secretary of the Commission and the Deputy Secretary of the Commission

Article 7

Commission shall have a Secretary and Deputy Secretary who shall participate in the Commission's work without the right of decision-making.

Working groups

Article 8

For the purpose of examining particular issues from its scope of activity, preparation of draft regulations, reports and other documents, and for undertaking certain electoral activities, Commission may establish working groups from the rank of its members.

Representatives of the state institutions and organisations may take part in the operation of the working groups in order to provide expert assistance.

The Decision on establishing the Commission shall lay down its tasks and composition.

Service of the National Assembly

Article 9

Service of the National Assembly shall ensure and provide necessary expert, administrative and technical assistance during performance of the tasks for the needs of the Commission and its working groups in compliance with law and the National Assembly decision on organisation and operation of the Service.

Commission Secretary shall ensure the provision of conditions for the functioning of the Commission.

III RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Chairperson of the Commission

Article 10

Chairperson of the Commission shall:

- represent the Commission,
- convene the sittings of the Commission and chair the sittings,
- sign the acts issued by the Commission,
- approve the business trips in the country and abroad,
- ensure that the Commission discharges its activities duly and in compliance with regulations,
- ensure the implementation of these Rules of Procedure, and
- perform other tasks envisaged by these Rules of Procedure.

Chairperson of the Commission may authorize the Secretary of the Commission to sign the acts issued by the Commission pertaining to operational issues.

Deputy Chairperson of the Commission

Article 11

Deputy Chairperson of the Commission shall discharge the duties of the Chairperson of the Commission in case of her/his absence or inability to perform the function, and may perform other task upon authorization from the Commission Chairperson.

Members of the Commission

Article 12

Members of the Commission shall have the right and obligation:

- to attend the sittings of the Commission regularly,
- to participate in the debate on issues on the agenda of the Commission sitting and vote on each proposal which is to be decided upon at the sitting,

- to perform all duties and tasks determined by the Commission.

Secretary of the Commission

Article 13

Secretary of the Commission shall:

- prepare the Commission sittings,
- coordinate the work of the members and substitute members of the Commission,
- assist the Chairperson of the Commission in attending business within her/his scope of competence,
- ensure the preparation of the act proposals to be approved by the Commission and shall perform other tasks in compliance with law, these Rules of Procedure and orders by the Commission Chairperson.

IV MODE OF OPERATION

Article 14

Sittings of the Commission shall be held in its seat.

If the need may be, the sittings of the Commission may be held on the premises of the National Assembly in 14 Kralja Milana Street.

Convening the sittings of the Commission

Article 15

Sitting of the Commission shall be convened by the Chairperson of the Commission.

Chairperson of the Commission shall be obliged to convene the sitting of the Commission at a short notice, upon the request of at least one third of the Commission members.

The sitting of the Commission shall be convened, as a rule, by sending an invitation in written form, and it may be convened by phone or in another convenient way, no later than two days before the day set for the sitting.

When necessary, sittings may be convened at shorter notice than referred to in Paragraph 3 of this Article.

Convocation of the sitting shall contain day, time, venue of the sitting of the Commission and the Draft Agenda. Together with the convocation of the sitting, members and substitute members of the Commission shall be provided with the material prepared for the items on the Draft Agenda, and the Minutes of the previous sitting of the Commission, if they were taken.

Agenda of the Commission sitting shall be proposed by the Commission Chairperson except in case of convening the sitting upon request of at least one third of the members of the Commission, in which case the Agenda shall be enclosed with the request for convening the sitting.

Opening and Participation in the Sitting

Article 16

The sitting may be held when attended by majority of the overall number of members, i.e. substitute members of the Commission in its permanent or extended composition.

The sitting shall be chaired by the Chairperson of the Commission, or, in his/her absence, Deputy Chairperson of the Commission.

In case the Chairperson needs to leave the sitting, the chairing shall be taken over by the Deputy Chairperson, i.e., in case of Chairperson's absence, by the most senior present member of the Commission. If the most senior present member of the Commission is not able or is not willing to chair the sitting, the chairmanship shall be taken over by the next most senior member of the Commission.

At the opening of the sitting, the Chairperson shall establish the number of the present members of the Commission.

Chairperson of the Commission, members of the Commission, Secretary of the Commission and their substitutes may take part in the debate.

Upon invitation of the Chairperson of the Commission, the representatives of the state institutions and organizations may attend the sitting if the issues from their scope of work are discussed, whereof the Chairperson shall inform the members of the Commission at the beginning of the sitting.

Proceedings of the Sitting

Article 17

Before establishing the Agenda, the Minutes of the previous sitting shall be adopted, if they were kept and duly submitted to the members and substitute members of the Commission.

Comments on the Minutes may be given by every member of the Commission or by substitute member.

If there are no submitted comments on the Minutes, the Chairperson shall put to vote the Minutes in the proposed text form.

The Commission shall decide on the comments made to the Minutes according to the order they were raised in the debate.

Following the deliberation on the comments on the Minutes, the Chairperson shall conclude that the Minutes are adopted in the proposed text form, i.e. together with the approved comments.

The Chairperson shall sign the Minutes.

Article 18

The Commission shall determine the agenda of the sitting.

Each member of the Commission, i.e. each substitute member, shall have the right to put forward modification or amendment of the proposed Agenda.

The vote shall be taken without debate on the proposals for modification or amendment of the proposed Agenda according to the order of proposals raised in the sitting.

Following the declaration of opinion on the proposals for modification or amending of the proposed Agenda, the Commission shall take vote on the adoption of the Agenda as a whole.

On proposal of the Chairperson or a Commission member, i.e. substitute member, the Commission may decide to limit the debate time given to each participant, on the particular item of the Agenda.

Article 19

The proceedings of the sitting shall follow the order of items of the established Agenda.

Before opening the debate on the item on the Agenda, the Chairperson of the Commission, or the member appointed by the Chairperson, shall report to the Commission and shall propose the further proceedings of the Commission (Rapporteur).

If an act proposal to be approved by the Commission is deliberated at the sitting, the Secretary of the Commission shall make the Commission acquainted with the act proposal before opening the debate.

Maintaining order at the sitting

Article 20

The Chairperson shall ensure the order at the sitting of the Commission and shall give the floor to members and substitute members of the Commission who applied for participation in the debate.

When the Chairperson deems it necessary, she/he may declare a break.

Deciding

Article 21

If the Chairperson establishes that the debate on the item on the Agenda is finished, she/he shall conclude the debate on the item on the Agenda and proceed to voting.

Commission shall pass decisions by majority vote of all the members of the Commission in permanent, i.e. extended composition.

Only members of the Commission shall have the right to vote, and substitute members shall have the same right only in case of absence of the member they substitute.

In case of more proposals given within one item on the Agenda, the Chairperson shall put the proposal to vote according to order they were presented.

The Commission shall always take a vote for the adoption of proposals.

If the proposal which is put to vote does not acquire the required majority vote, that proposal shall be deemed defeated.

Deciding on the act proposals to be adopted by the Commission

Article 22

If it may be the case that proposals for deletion or modification of an act are put forward in the debate, the Chairperson shall first put these proposals to vote. In that case, deciding shall be done according to the order in which the proposals for deletion or modification were presented, whereby the Chairperson shall first put the proposal for deletion and then the proposal for modification.

Following the voting on all the given proposals, the Chairperson shall put to vote the adoption of act proposal as a whole.

Deciding on complaints

Article 23

If it may be the case that proposal for dismissal of a complaint is put forward in the debate, the Chairperson shall first put this proposal to vote.

When several proposals for dismissal of a complaint have been made, the vote on the proposals shall be taken according to order they were put forward in the debate. If a proposal is adopted, the others will not be put to vote.

If no proposal for dismissal of complaint is presented in the debate or none of the given proposals are adopted, the Commission shall vote on the adoption of complaints.

The Chairperson shall always put on vote the proposal for the adoption of a complaint.

If the proposal to adopt the complaint does not acquire the required majority vote, the complaint shall be deemed dismissed.

Article 24

In the complaint procedure on issues that are not explicitly provided for by law, the Commission shall accordingly apply the provisions of the Law on general administrative procedure.

Minutes

Article 25

Minutes of the proceedings shall be kept at Commission sittings.

Minutes shall contain main data on the sitting proceedings, especially on the proposals being discussed, including names of the participants in the debate, decisions, conclusions and other acts approved at the sitting, including results of all the voting carried out at the sitting.

Shorthand notes shall be taken at the sitting of the Commission and they shall be integral part of the Minutes.

If the conditions for taking shorthand notes do not exist, the transcription of audio-records of the sitting of the Commission shall be taken and it shall be the integral part of the Minutes.

After being approved, the Minutes shall be signed by the Chairperson and the Secretary of the Commission.

The Secretary of the Commission shall ensure taking and keeping of the Minutes.

Originals and transcriptions of the Commission's acts

Article 26

Original act shall be deemed to be the text of an act approved at the sitting of the Commission in the prescribed form, signed by the Chairperson and with the official seal of the Commission affixed.

The Secretary of the Commission shall ensure making and keeping of the original act.

For the purpose of providing it to parties, the transcription of the original act shall be made in the form identical to the original act and signed by the Secretary of the Commission and with the affixed seal of the Commission.
